Australia at War

Who Did What When?

Lower Primary-Upper Primary 675788 TOP 10
$29.99

The human face of history can only be discovered by looking at the lives of the people who took part. The question 'Who did what when?' is answered in this book through accounts of activism, heroism, leadership and resistance during important times in Australia's history.

Brave Bess and the Anzac Horses

A True Story of Courage and Loyalty

Upper Primary+ 692863 TOP 10
$16.99

Every year we celebrate our Anzac heroes and commemorate the fallen at Gallipoli, wearing poppies in their memory every Anzac Day. But there were other heroes and heroines of the First World War whose stories have remained largely untold - the horses shipped to the Middle East to carry our troops who fought in the desert.

Dangerous Days

A Digger's Great Escape

Lower Primary+ 699564 NEW
$24.99

Ern Brough fought and was wounded at Tobruk and at El Alamein. But neither he nor his humanity died. One morning during the brutal Allied offensive against Rommel in October 1942, he piggybacked a badly wounded enemy soldier to German lines under heavy fire. Three hours later, the tanks came and Brough was taken prisoner.

First Anzac Day

Lower Primary-Upper Primary 699572 NEW

Each book features contemporary and historical photographs.

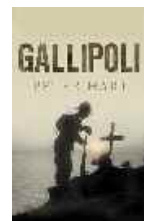

Gallipoli

A Gripping, Revisionist Account of an Epic Tragedy

Lower Secondary+ 699398 NEW
$59.99

One of the most famous battles in history, Gallipoli had begun as a bold move led by the British to ultimately capture Constantinople, but this definitive new history explains that from the initial landings it was a lunacy that was never going to succeed.

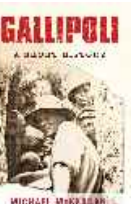

Gallipoli

A Short History

Lower Secondary+ 696887 NEW
$27.99

Jack Fothergill worked on Melbourne's trams before he went to war and was killed on Pine Ridge on 25 April 1915. In Gallipoli, Michael McKernan tells Jack's story and that of his family, who never recovered from their grief. While saluting the bravery, determination and resourcefulness of the Anzacs, McKernan also tells of the failed leadership in London and on the Peninsula that caused great loss of life.

The Great War

Upper Secondary+ 699866

NEW
$34.99

The Great War is Les Carlyon's extraordinary account of the Anzacs on the Western Front from 1916 to 1918. This new Picador edition is designed to sit alongside a matching edition of Gallipoli, his other classic work on Australia's involvement in the First World War.

On All Fronts

Australia's World War II

Lower Primary+ 694531

NEW
$35.99

World War II was the most defining moment in Australia's history. On All Fronts looks at the key milestones of Australia's participation in the major theatres of World War II, from the tenacity of the Rats of Tobruk to the bitter battles of Greece and Crete, and the Allied triumph at El Alamein.

Pozières

The Anzac Story

Lower Secondary+ 699937

NEW
$36.99

In 1916, a million men fought in the first battle of the Somme. Victory for both sides hinged on their ability to capture a small French village called Pozières, perched on the highest ridge of the battlefield. While Gallipoli has entered the national mythology, Pozières has received less attention.

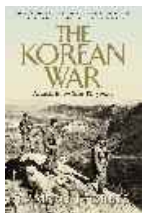

The Korean War

Australia in the Giants' Playground

Lower Secondary+ 698920

NEW
$49.99

The Korean War was a 20th Century conflict that has never ended. South Korea, a powerhouse economy and dynamic democracy sits uneasily alongside North Korea, the world's most secretive, belligerent, unpredictable and repressive totalitarian state. Today, tensions simmer and occasionally flare into outright violence on a peninsula dense with arms, munitions and nuclear warheads.

The Other Anzacs

The Extraordinary Story of our World War I Nurses

Lower Secondary+ 692891 TOP 10
$35.99

The harrowing, dramatic and profoundly moving story of the Australian and New Zealand nurses who served in the Great War. A story of extraordinary courage and humanity shown by a group of women whose contribution to the Anzac legend has barely been recognised in our history.

The Tiger Man of Vietnam

Middle Secondary+ 699564

NEW
$24.99

The Vietnamese hilltribes made him a demigod. The CIA wanted to kill him. This is the remarkable true story of Australian war hero Barry Petersen. In 1963, 28-year-old Australian Captain Barry Petersen was sent to Vietnam as part of the 30-man Australian Training Team, two years before the first official Australian troops arrived.

The Vietnam Years

From the Jungle to the Australian Suburbs

Middle Secondary+ 686022

NEW
$27.99

The Vietnam War was the longest and most divisive war in Australian history. Between 1962 and 1972, 59 000 Australian men and women served there; 520 were killed and over 2 500 wounded. Many of the veterans still bear the scars - physically and mentally - from their time there.
