New Release 2016!

Pre-publication offer!

May 2016 release! Special pre-release offer!

Readers' Theatre readers are shared-reading stories because they are so engaging and socially rich. Best of all, they are theatrical, joyously entertaining and funny. Ellie Hallett's unique play-in-rows format, developed and trialled with great success in her own teaching classrooms, combine expressive oral reading, active listening, visualisation, peer teaching and vocabulary building.

About the Author

Since retiring from the classroom, Ellie Hallett has become a prolific writer of plays, poetry, songs and musicals, and several learn-to-read series of books.

Ellie's background includes training and classroom teaching at both Primary and Secondary levels. Ellie's classroom experience includes being a K-6 demonstration teacher in a disadvantaged schools programme for the performance arts (music, art and drama), a reading and speech/drama specialist in top city schools, and in amongst all this a K-12 music education class teacher, choral director and private piano teacher.
